IDST 280 Introduction to the Interdisciplinary Studies Major and Degree Plan 1 cr

Provides beginning interdisciplinary majors with the opportunity to develop a sense of agency and ownership of their educational pathway through the creation of an individualized degree plan. Students will familiarize themselves with the IDST program at MCLA and engage with themes such as: conceptualizations and definitions of interdisciplinarity; the history of academic disciplines and the emergence of interdisciplinary studies; the interdisciplinary research process.

Prerequisite: IDST 250-259 or IDST 150

IDST 320 Methods in Interdisciplinary Studies 3 cr

Provides students with competencies in interdisciplinary research methods. Students will be introduced to the interdisciplinary research process and engage in research projects, applying disciplinary and interdisciplinary methods, theories, and concepts to the study of complex themes that cannot be understood through the lens of a single disciplinary lens. Course topics vary and are identified by subtitle (e.g. City & Social Space; Global Refugees of the 21st Century).

Prerequisite: Junior/senior status

Repeatable: Unlimited Credits

IDST 350 World History in Contexts 3 cr

Studies themes related to a geographic area, nation, epoch, or selected social group in historical contexts. Students will critically engage with a variety of sources, such as written historical documents, oral histories, literary texts, music and cinematic representations of past and present human experience in local and global (particularly non-Western) contexts. Course topic identified by subtitle.

Prerequisite: Junior/senior status

Repeatable: Unlimited Credits

IDST 351 Race and Racism from a Global Perspective 3 cr

Deconstructs the global construct of race by focusing on the tangled connections between state, race, culture, and identity. Relying on materials from across disciplines, the course aims to deepen students' understanding of the complexity of race and racism and the importance of interdisciplinary approaches. After a theoretical section, the course will explore the global dissemination of race and formations of racial identities, and will end with a case study on Sino-Africa engagement.

Prerequisite: Junior/senior status

IDST 352 Environmental Justice 3 cr

Explores the concept of environmental justice through interdisciplinary lenses, including historical, sociological, scientific, literacy, and philosophical perspectives. Examines the history of the EJ movement as a response to environmentalist movements that failed to consider differentiated impacts on people based on race, gender, and economic status. Historic and current case studies from around the world serve as concrete examples to enable us to grasp patterns and economic connections.

Prerequisite: Junior/senior status

IDST 360 Topics in Culture and Society 3 cr

Explores complex and controversial topics in culture and society from the vantage point of at least two different academic disciplines (such as sociology, history, psychology, literature, and cultural studies) and through interdisciplinary perspectives. Course topic identified by subtitle.

Prerequisite: Junior/senior status

Repeatable: Unlimited Credits

IDST 361 Madness and Society 3 cr

Studies how understandings of mental health and illness are inextricably linked to society, culture, space, and time. Draws on theories, concepts, and insights from history, sociology, psychology, cultural anthropology, and media studies to study topics such as the history of mental illness; the influence of gender and social class on mental well-being; mental illness across cultures; and media representations of mental illness.

Prerequisite: Junior/senior status

IDST 362 Chinese Urban Cultures 3 cr

Seeks to understand the socio-cultural changes in China following economic reforms in the 1980s. Exploring topics such as youth culture, gender and sexuality, and rural migration, we will focus on the shifting relationship between the state and common people's cultural life. The course uses a multi-disciplinary approach and incorporates various interesting materials including cultural analyses, anthropological research, a mystery fiction, and founding notes of a utopic community.

Prerequisite: Junior/senior status

IDST 401 Senior Seminar 3 cr

Available only to senior interdisciplinary studies majors, this seminar requires students to carry out supervised research projects within their areas of study and to share the progress and results of their research with seminar participants.

Prerequisite: Senior IDST Major

IDST 500 Directed Independent Study 1-3 cr

Open to junior and senior IDST majors who wish to read in a given area or to study a topic in depth. Written reports and frequent conferences with the advisor are required.

Prerequisite: Junior/senior status, department approval

Repeatable: Maximum of 12 credits

IDST 540 Interdisciplinary Internship 1-6 cr

Offers seniors field experience that actively and extensively draws upon the concepts, principles, and skills of at least two different disciplines. The internship must include a strong writing component in which the student interprets his/her field experience with reference to key ideas and themes of the relevant disciplines.

Prerequisite: Senior status, department approval

Repeatable: Maximum of 15 credits
